Notes from the boss.....

Every good side has got to be able to bounce back after suffering a defeat as we did at Burnley last Saturday, so it was pleasing to see the team get straight back into the winning groove in Tuesday night's Freight Rover Trophy game at Stockport.

It wasn't the best of performances, I accept that. But under the circumstances there were a number of good points, not the least being the result. When we won the FA Cup tie at Burnley a fortnight ago we managed to keep a nice little run going and it would have been nice to have maintained our unbeaten record on our return to Turf Moor last week. Unfortunately it was not to be. So getting back on the boil with a victory straight away was crucial for morale.

What a lot of people seem to have forgotten is that Asa Hartford's team had nothing to lose on the night and everything to gain. They went into the game knowing full well that they had to win. A draw was no good to them so we knew from the start that they would be prepared to throw caution to the wind at some stage so we had to be on our guard.

Okay, we weren't two goals better than them on the night but once again we showed that, however indifferently we might play, we will lie down for no one. We came strong at the end with two superbly taken goals from John Thomas and the important fact remains—we are in the next round.

One lesson we learned from Tuesday night's game is that the Edgeley Park pitch is probably typical of the conditions we can expect on our travels over the next few months. It was not an ideal surface for football, having clearly deteriorated over the last few weeks since we saw it last. But we will encounter similar conditions to that throughout the winter so we know we must be prepared.

Fortunately we should have excellent conditions here at Burnden for today's game against Cambridge. They have been going well this season and we are determined to string together another good run of results, so the match offers plenty of promise. I hope you enjoy the game and are happy with the result at the end.

CAMBRIDGE UNITED

Cambridge United are fighting back after a three-year slump in which they plummeted from Division Two to the Division Four re-election zone in successive seasons. They finished bottom of the Second, bottom of the Third and then 22nd in the Fourth.

But the club which replaced Bradford Park Avenue in the League in 1970 were back in the promotion race last season. They regained some pride and support in the university city.

It was an exciting run in the Littlewoods Cup which brought them national fame. They beat Wimbledon, Ipswich, and brought Tottenham Hotspur to their small Abbey Stadium.

The man who has transformed Cambridge is their former centre-half Chris Turner. He was plucked from United Counties League side Ramsey Town to take charge just before Christmas 1985. Turner was promoted to general manager in May, a new role at the club. But he is well aware of the hard work needed to revive the club's financial fortunes. Cambridge have struggled, despite accountant chairman David Ruston's fine housekeeping. United had to sell promising young striker Mark Cooper to Tottenham last season to ease financial pressures. It may take a long and steady recovery before the club escapes the lower divisions once more.

MATCH REPORT

AROUND THE LEAGUES!

It was a disappointing weekend for Division One's top Clubs. Only Everton recorded maximum points. Arsenal's 14 match unbeaten run came to an end at Highbury at the hands of Southampton and Liverpool surprisingly failed to overcome lowly Norwich at Anfield. Q.P.R. only managed a 1-1 home draw with Newcastle and Notts Forest and Man. Utd. failed in their visits to the capital at West Ham and Wimbledon respectively.

In Division 2 leaders Bradford had a tricky away game at Leicester but came away with a victory as did rejuvenated Middlesbrough in their journey to Plymouth. Blackburn recorded a 2-0 home win over Steve Coppel's Crystal Palace and Oldham failed to dent Ipswich's fine home record. Team of the moment, Manchester City, scored another three goals without any reply from visitors Birmingham in front of 22,690 spectators, the Divisions highest attendance.

In Division 3 leaders Sunderland had to capitalise on an 85th minute penalty to level the scores at Chesterfield. Notts County chased in with a 3-1 home victory over promotion contenders, Walsall and are now level pegging with the leaders.

Preston failed to overcome fellow strugglers Doncaster who would be pleased to record their first away win of the season. Wigan's visit to Brentford proved fruitless but the story may have been different had they not given the home side a flying start with a 9th minute penalty.

In Division 4, Wolves are currently clear leaders on 37 points after recording a fine away win at Colchester and Cardiff's away win at Newport gained them second place.

Comedian Tommy Cannon has had enough at Spotland and resigned as Chairman, but the 'Dale, after a recent bad spell scored an away victory at Cambridge to move off the league bottom spot.

Burnley	2
Bolton	1

Even defeated manager Phil Neal was in optimistic mood after a cracker of a game. "If we can get matches like this in the Fourth Division, football must be on the up-and-up in Lancashire," he said.

Grewcock, who caused mayhem on the right flank, started the Burnley revival with a drive which Felgate did well to keep out. Then Comstive had a header parried onto the underside of the bar.

Confidence

Just before the break Pearce palmed a Henshaw drive onto the bar and caught the rebound.

Burnley grew in confidence after Britton put them ahead from close range. But there was more than a hint of offside about the second goal, put home from the narrowest of angles by loan boy Reeves. Thomas pulled one back with a follow-up shot after a Pearce punch-out.

LYNN WARD

This week we look into the inside of soccer and to an area which everyone takes for granted in many respects.

Come 3pm on Saturday and we're all ready for the big kick off but our personality kicks off at 8am everyday and still has to have all the dedication and attributes to be proud of her work and everyone is there to judge the result. She's Lynn Ward, who turns out her "family" looking spick and span some 50 times a season; you might call her one of the unsung heroes.

Every team carries a nickname but Lynn has to live up to a reputation—"The Superwhites". After some games she probably thinks she is looking after the "All Blacks". Fortunately the days of the 'dolly tub' have gone but Lynn is no scrubber when it comes to washing. Whilst continuing her chores, Lynn, who has been with the Wanderers for two and a half years said with a grin, "I signed on in May 1985 and no transfer fee was involved."

Most of our female readers will no doubt agree with Lynn when she describes Mondays as her 'worst day'—and no wonder with three team kits to sort. Lynn said, "There is the first team, reserves and Steve Carroll's Sunday League team and when conditions have been bad the kits have to be washed three or four times." Then there are occasions when the traditional scrubbing brush has to be used to remove all those grass stains. Lynn's namesake, Shirley, assists in the afternoons with the training kit.

All this activity takes place tucked away under the Stand where the familiar washing machine noise can be heard—you know how it is lads!

Oddly enough, Lynn sees very little football. She said, "The last time I saw Bolton play was at Blackpool in 1968 and there was no trouble then, in fact I was stood with the Blackpool fans. But really I haven't much time because usually I'm at home—washing."

She has a 'family' of about 40 every day since the first team, reserves, Y.T.S. lads, coach, manager and trialists expect newly washed attire. On top of all this, Lynn has a family of three to care for as well. Everyone will probably be posing that inevitable question, which brand does she use to produce that Superwhiteness—well, it's Persil.

FLASH BACK

5 YEARS AGO. 20th November, 1982.

A derby encounter with Blackburn at Ewood exploded into action in the final ten minutes. Bolton took the lead with the first clear cut chance of the game in the 82nd minute, Jeff Chandler sending a rocket shot out of the reach of Vince O'Keefe, who was making his debut. Three minutes later Rovers equalised when Kevin Stonehouse converted a penalty after Paul Jones had floored Norman Bell.

27th November, 1982. Bolton ended a run of seven League games without a win when Leicester were beaten 3-1 at Burnden. City were down to ten men after only 25 minutes, Paul Friar being sent off for two bookable offences, a minute later Bolton went in front. Wayne Foster headed the first, Mike Doyle scored the second a minute from half time, Chris Thompson the third, whilst City's consolation came from Ian Wilson.

10 YEARS AGO. 26th November, 1977.

A dramatic last minute goal from Roy Greaves gave the Wanderers victory against promotion rivals Tottenham Hotspur at Burnden. A crowd of 32266 saw Neil McNab's goal from thirty yards ruled out for offside as the Wanderers went clear at the top of the table 30th November, 1977. Another thirty thousand plus crowd came to Burnden this time for a League Cup 4th round tie with Leeds United. All the goals came in the second half with Arthur Graham, Joe Jordan and Frank Gray giving Leeds a three goal advantage before Garry Jones scored for Bolton with two minutes left.

15 YEARS AGO. 25th November, 1972

An unchanged Bolton side faced Rotherham at Burnden in a game that will still be remembered by many, not for the scoreline, but for the incident that led to Bolton's winner. There was four minutes remaining with the sides level at 1-1 when United 'keeper Jim McDonagh placed the ball for what he thought was a goalkick. He turned to take the kick and in rushed Garry Jones to put the ball into an empty net for the Wanderers winning goal. 29th November, 1972. The Wanderers youth team drew 0-0 at Wolves in the second round of the FA Youth Cup.

Blackburn Rovers Res . . 2
Bolton Wanderers Res . . 2
4th November, 1987.

Bolton twice held the lead but had to settle for a point in an entertaining encounter at Ewood Park.

Trialist Craig Hackett grabbed the first goal six minutes from half time, his 25 yard shot dipping into the top corner of the net, but unfortunately the lead lasted only four minutes. Len Johnrose grabbed the home sides equaliser from close range after a right wing corner.

In the 57th minute Neil Whatmore put Bolton back in fron but once again Johnrose equalised for Rovers within four minutes of Bolton regaining the lead.

Team: Price, Brown, O'Brien, Hackett, Jackson, Neal, Henshaw, McKearney, Stevens, Whatmore, Booth. Subs: Callaghan for Hackett. Hughes for Whatmore.

Stoke City Res . . 1
Bolton Wanderers Res . . 1
11th November, 1987.

Bolton kept up their steady away form with a point at Stoke but it was a game the Wanderers should have won. The visitors were well on top for more than an hour but the only reward during that time was an Ian Stevens goal a minute into the second half. The Wanderers lost their steady defensive format when Dave Sutton went off injured and gradually Stoke got back into the game. They equalised in the 79th minute when Andy Holmes powerfully headed home a right wing corner.

Team: Price, Hughes, O'Neill, McKearney, Sutton, Jackson, Banks, Callaghan, Morgan, Stevens, Henshaw. Subs: O'Brien for O'Neill, Brown for Sutton.

Bolton Wanderers Res . . 1
Barnsley Res . . 0
18th November, 1987.

The Wanderers ended a run of eight games without a win with a remendous performance against the League leaders. Bolton ran the game from start to finish and were unlucky not to have chalked up a victory by a larger margin. As it was, an Ian Stevens goal in the 34th minute, his eighth of the season, was enough to take the points.

Team: Senior, Spooner, O'Brien, McKearney, Neal, Winstandley, Brown, Callaghan, Morgan, Stevens, Booth. Subs: Banks for Neal. Hughes.

"G-DAY"

Here's your starter for ten—no it's not Bamber Gascoigne asking questions for University Challenge—but today's visitors, Cambridge, have one of the best away records in the football league having already won five games on their travels. Unfortunately, their home form recently has let them down so at the moment they find themselves hovering around mid table.

It was good to get through to the next round of the Cup, but again the luck of the draw deserted us, pairing us against Wrexham at the Racecourse Ground in next week's encounter. Mike Carter and Mick Salmon will be looking forward to this clash and will be hoping to put one over on the former club. It would certainly be a boost to reach to the third round again when a home draw against one of the bigger clubs wouldn't go a miss.

These days with sport being so commercialised, it was no surprise when the F.A. announced that the F.A. Cup was finally to have a backer. It's no secret now that Fosters Lager, that 'Aussie Nectar', is going to sponsor the Cup to the tune of millions. What will it be like on the day of the final, will Paul Hogan be doing the pre-match entertainment? Could Rolf Harris take the community singing and will Dame Edna Everage present the Cup to the winning captain!

Christmas is fast approaching. In fact after today's game we have only one more home game before we play Stockport at Burnden on Monday 28th December, so it's the time of year when the loyal football fan is tested for his loyalty. Does he give in to the wife or girlfriend and do the dreaded deed. Yes you know what I mean, go Christmas shopping, or does he defer them and risk the cold shoulder, shouting the lads on instead. Many an excuse has been made to his mates on the day of the match, like got a bad cold or has to work overtime, instead of coming out with the dreadful truth.

Stan will be remembered for his loyal service in the 40's and 50's, and his work with the Junior teams in recent years.

HOOLIGANISM

During the past few matches a minority of so called Wanderers Supporters have let their Club down by reverting to acts of hooliganism and foul and abusive chanting. Bolton Wanderers do not want this type of person to attend any matches, either home or away.

The Police have agreed to assist the Club in identifying the culprits and in taking the necessary action in banning them from Burnden Park.

Already this season the Courts have banned TEN people from attending matches at Burnden Park. This number will no doubt increase after the incidents encountered after the disturbances at Burnley two weeks ago have been handled by the Courts.

The Club supports the Police and the Courts in their actions and do not want these people associated with Bolton Wanderers and assure the genuine supporter that we will do all in our power to eradicate this unwelcome element from Burnden Park.

Listed below are the persons banned from Burnden Park:-
P. Howell; A. Dootson; G. Owen; M. Glover; M.D. Mills; A. Howell; K. Derbyshire; C. Gilpin; P. Wright; A.P. Hornby.

NOTEBOOK

GOLDEN OLDIES!

4th April, 1981. There is nothing too old about today's look back at the Wanderers' first ever visit to the Abbey Stadium, although it was golden, Bolton winning 3-2. Both sides needed the points from this second division encounter, United to keep up their hopes of promotion alive, the Wanderers to ensure their second division survival. It was a full-blooded affair with the issue being in doubt right up to the final whistle. Peter Reid fired Bolton in front in the 13th minute only to see Steve Fallon, eventually sent off late in the game, level things in the 35th minute. Dusan Nikolic restored Bolton's lead but United hit back through Tommy O'Neill. Five minutes from time Neil Whatmore struck the Wanderers' winning goal with his 100th Football League goal.

Wearing the number 9 shirt for the Wanderers that day was John Thomas, one of four of the Bolton team that took part in the game and are still active in the League today. The others being Mike Walsh, Paul Jones and Peter Reid.

REFLECTIONS!

Cambridge United visit Burnden Park today for the first time in almost three years. Their first visit in November 1980, in a second division game, produced a goal bonanza as the Wanderers ran out 6-1 winners.

Brian Kidd grabbed his second hat-trick of the season for Bolton with Neil Whatmore, Dave Hoggan and Len Cantello making up the half-dozen.

Alan Taylor, who is now with Bury, scored United's goal.

United's next visit to Burnden, eleven months later, again produced seven goals although it was the visitors who were victorious on this occasion by 4-3. Tony Henry, with his first goal for Bolton and Brian Kidd, put Bolton in front after Steve Spriggs had given Cambridge the lead from the penalty spot. United then raced into a 4-2 lead with goals from Chris Turner, Roger Gibbins and Joe Mayo. Tony Henry hit another goal late in the game but it wasn't enough for the Wanderers.

United completed the double that season with a 2-1 win at the Abbey Stadium, both Gibbins and Henry being on the mark again for their respective clubs, Tommy O'Neill scoring the winner for United.

The last encounters between the clubs in the second division were in 1982/83. A scoreless draw resulted at Cambridge whilst Bolton won 2-0 at Burnden. Dave Hoggan scored both goals in what was the club's last victory in the second division.

United's last visit to Burnden was in December 1984 when they took a point from a 0-0 draw in a third division encounter. United at the time were bottom of the League. The final game of that season saw the Wanderers win 3-2 at Cambridge, hanging on to the points, after racing into a three-goal lead. Roger Walker, George Oghani and Tony Caldwell scored before United hit back through an own goal from Oghani and a goal from Andy Sinton.
